

Island Harbor

A SUPERVISED INDEPENDENT LIVING PROGRAM

Island Harbor, a Supervised Independent Living Program (SIL), is designed to help young adults aging out of foster care transition to independent living while attending TAMU-CC. Island Harbor provides students with:

- Year-round housing
- Meal plans that can be used at the dining hall and on campus restaurants
- Money to go towards the cost of a cell phone and incidentals each month
- Case management services
- Academic and life skills development opportunities
- Connection to on campus resources such as health services center, academic tutoring, student organizations, etc.
- Mentoring and permanent connections to caring adults
- Connection to the Corpus Christi community and local businesses through partnership programs

How to Apply?

Youth must be accepted into both supervised independent living (SIL) through the state and Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi (TAMU-CC)

Application to SIL

Youth can get the SIL application from their caregiver, PAL staff or caseworker. The application can also be found online at: www.dfps.state.tx.us/Child_Protection/Fostering_Connections/supervised_independent_living.asp

Once the student completes the application, the application must be turned in to the caseworker.
